Description

Vall d'Alcala, not far from Vall d'Ebo. A small, immaculate village in the Marina Alta region of Alicante. This cottage is located on the edge of Vall d'Alcala in a quiet cul-de-sac. Country views. Restored to a high specification with exposed stone walling, barro ceilings (hand made in Orba) with wooden beams. Marble flooring (antique finish) in the main living area. The front door (Indian) opens into an entrance hall * leading on the left to a guest toilet, & a fitted kitchen with breakfast area. Through a square arch you enter the living room with woodburner, a door to an open terrace and stairs up to the three bedrooms & shower room. Bedrooms also have exposed natural stone walling and barro beamed ceilings.

- From the entrance hall a door opens onto stairs leading down to a cellar/bodega/dining room. Large dining table with benches, huge wine rack, stone sink, concealed lighting, exposed stone walling. A lovely room
